

JURYMEN WEEP AS STORY IS RETOLD

Lawyer in Chicago Court Vividly
Draws Picture of "Persecution" of Ella Gingles.

CASE WILL END MONDAY

State's Attorney Says Plot Tale
Was Product of a Fertile Mind.

CHICAGO, July 16.—The final plea for Ella Gingles, on trial for the murder of her husband, was made in Judge Brennan's court today by Attorney Patrick H. O'Donnell. At its conclusion the jurors, several of whom were wiping tears from their eyes, asked for an adjournment until Monday morning when the state's attorney, B. J. Short will close the case.

This case has been on my soul since January 2," said Mr. O'Donnell. "Chicago is waiting for a Moses. I may be ruined in this trial, but if State's Attorney John E. Wayman wants to write his name among the great material is in this case. This case is through, and you are to decide now whether Ella is guilty."

"The State has charged that I put the name of Tom Taggart and these horrible stories into this girl's mouth. They had to abandon that when it was found that Ella told her story to others before I heard it. No human mind could have concocted that story. It was lived by Ella Gingles in all its horror."

Girl Hounded, He Says.

"When I went to Canada and found out certain things about the girl, I came back satisfied that a colossal power was working against her."

"There are only three stories of how the girl was injured. One is that she did it herself, the other is that she had an accomplice, and the third is that she was the victim of friends frenzied by wine. I say that it was the last and the evidence bears me out."

In closing his preliminary argument early in the day, Assistant State's Attorney Short said:

"Mr. O'Donnell may argue to you that the wealth of detail given in Miss Gingles' story shows its truth, but don't be deceived. She has demonstrated that she has a vivid imagination and a fertile mind."

Mr. Short then took up the story of the alleged attack on Miss Gingles, declaring that according to the evidence of medical experts it could not be true.

INSPECT SEWERS IN OTHER TOWNS

Mr. Bolling and Mr. Bolton Will Study Problem Before Starting Work Here.

On recommendation of City Engineer Bolling, a subcommittee of two with the City Engineer and Assistant City Engineer Bolton, who has immediate charge of sewer work, will be sent to a number of Northern cities, including Newark, Wilmington, Philadelphia and Baltimore, to inspect sewer construction in progress, with a view of securing information for the proposed work in Richmond.

Mr. Bolling recommended that Mr. Bolton, assistant engineer, directly in charge of sewer work, should go with the inspection committee.

"The city is to spend $550,000 on sewers in the next year," said Mr. Bolling, "and it should investigate the most modern methods and get the best advice possible."

Messrs. Whitely and Lynch thought it highly important that the City Engineer, as well as Mr. Bolton, should be a few days to Assistant Engineer Tallaferra, and an inspection tour by two members of the subcommittee of sewers and the two engineers was ordered.

The committee recommended for rejection the ordinance prohibiting shifting of freight trains for fifteen minutes before and after the arrival of passengers, and the ordinance of the Walker, of the Chesapeake and Ohio, was present to oppose the measure, but it was not necessary for him to speak, the committee voting it down unanimously.

Kill Obsolete Laws.

Mr. Winston, of the Virginia Railway and Power Company, was present to ask an extension of time on the ordinance requiring shifting of freight trains for fifteen minutes before and after the arrival of passengers. The car company, he said, was preparing a new scheme for the rearrangement of its tracks in the section of the city between the city hall and the city hall, and he requested that the ordinance be struck out of the city code.

Mr. Winston also recommended to the Council granting to the United States government certain rights to construct airways under Tenth and Bank Streets in the plans for the Federal Building. City Engineer Bolling explained that he had examined the plans, that they call for a driveway, a retaining wall with areas along the present line of the Shafter building. The proposition for oiling the Boulevard was tabled.

REMARKABLE OPERATION
WILL SAVE MAN'S LIFE

Although his back was broken by a fall from a telephone pole in Petersburg on Wednesday, Richard H. Newsom is expected to recover, physicians and surgeons agreeing that the case will be one of the remarkable ones of the year.

At work, crouched a live wire, which sent 230 volts through his body. Dr. H. Stuart MacLean, of Richmond, was called in as a specialist, performed an operation, set the bones and relieved the paralysis. The man's body, the work was unusual and delicate to a degree, but if Newsom recovers, it will be widely reported in medical journals.

Judge Mann Passed Through.

Judge William Hodges Mann was in the city for a few hours yesterday morning on his way to Petersburg to attend the funeral of a near relative. Judge Mann will not be here until the latter days of the month, though it is not improbable that he may close his campaign with a speech in the city.

Took Big Dose of Laudanum.

Thomas Johnson, of 117 West Marshall Street, was treated yesterday morning on a hurry call by Dr. Collier of the city ambulance. He had taken two ounces of laudanum and was for the time in a serious condition. Johnson recovered very quickly after treatment. He had been on a spree the night before.

Officer Goes to Jail.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALPHIGH, N. C., July 16.—Because he would not accept personal recognition for his appearance as a witness in a trial next Monday, Isaac W. Rogers, special detective and police officer, was committed to jail today by Justice of the Peace Roberts for contempt. In addition to the recognition incident, a writ of habeas corpus was granted for Rogers. He had a search warrant from Roberts to serve in a case for larceny, and never made return.

We will sell large Georgia water-melons, sweet and fresh, two for 25 cents; California Hams, 11 cents per pound; Salt Pork, 10 1/2 cents per pound; Baking Apples, 10 cents per bushel; BULMANN'S BONES, 1820 East Main, and 100 East Marshall Streets.

SAVE MONEY
It isn't what you make but what you save that counts. KEXALL STRAW HAT CLEANER will save you the cost of a new hat. It guarantees it. Write for price list. Two sizes, 10c and 25c, at Polk Miller's, 834 E. Main.

JACOBS & LEVY, "The Quality Shop,"
705 East Broad Street.

Our Semi-Annual Half-Price Sale

Goes Merrily On—

And why not—when you can select from such high-grade stock as ours, at prices that you'd pay for the medium and low grade? Take advantage of this opportunity and judge for yourself.

Our sale 50 per cent. off the regular price of fancy goods, will last until Tuesday, July 20th.

$35 SUITS, $17.50

$30 SUITS, $15.00

$25 SUITS, $12.50

$20 SUITS, $10.00

$15 SUITS, $ 7.50

Shirts.

$2.50 grades...$1.69

Underwear

$2.50 grades...$1.89

$2.00 grades...$1.39

Straw Hats

$4.00 grades...$2.00

$3.50 grades...$1.75

$3.00 grades...$1.50

$2.00 grades...$1.00

Boys' and Children's Suits
One-Half Off Marked Price

JACOBS & LEVY

GOT NO COMFORT BUT MANY KICKS

Park Keeper Informed That He Cannot Drive People Away
at 9 P. M.

Parkkeeper Parater, who summarily ordered Jefferson Park closed to all comers at 9 o'clock on Thursday night, much to the disgust of several hundred Church Hill citizens, who were enjoying the cool air after a hot day's work, got little satisfaction in his complaint to City Engineer Bolling of the ordinance prohibiting driving of cars after 9 o'clock.

One member of the Grounds and Buildings Committee last night was especially indignant, saying that, should any of the people, but to health, and sometimes to life itself.

"Whenever on a hot day I see a large expanse of green grass under an inviting shade and read the sign 'Keep off the Grass,' it fills me with indignation."

"The people, children especially, should be allowed to use the parks with greater freedom. If the keepers have more work, let them be better paid. Some of the grass should be destroyed, replace it in the fall. It will be money well spent."

"The more we have to do with you Southerners," he writes, "the more I become impressed that there is something in the air South of the old Dixie line that makes for square dealing."

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

"The more we have to do with you Southerners," he writes, "the more I become impressed that there is something in the air South of the old Dixie line that makes for square dealing."

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

ROANOKE, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Dr. Callahan, Esquire, has been told that Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, the trade was made by correspondence, and Mr. Lawson, after consulting with the good sense in horse-trading on paper, says it is a pity that every man trading horses should not go after it like Southerners instead of "sneaking it out" with nothing apparently in mind but that the other fellow is a fool.

PRACTICAL WORK AT RURAL SCHOOL

Many Speakers of Note Address
Teachers During Rural Life
Week.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 16.—J. D. Eggleston, Jr., State Superintendent of Public Instruction, spoke at the "Possibilities of School Extension Work in Virginia" before the University of Virginia Summer School in connection with the Rural Life Week yesterday afternoon. He defined extension work as the intelligent effort to improve the mental, social, physical and economic conditions of the people of the State.

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, of the United States Department of Public Health, talked of the loss of life due to the "hook worm" disease, and other preventable ills. The subject of his lecture was "What Country People Can Do for Themselves."

Social and Personal.

INVITATIONS have been issued by Mrs. John E. Baker to the marriage of her daughter, Bessie Lee, to Louis Adam Eck, on Monday, July 19, at 3 P. M., at her home.

The wedding of Edwin Vincent Wolstenholme and Miss Mary Lou Moore, both of Ellersboro, Va., was celebrated on Tuesday last in the residence of Rev. C. H. Boggs, in Highland Park. Rev. Mr. Boggs performed the ceremony, which was very quiet.

Young Guests in House Party.

Miss Janet Wyatt and Master John Wyatt, of this city, with Master Robert Goodloe, of Verdon, Va., have been entertaining a number of their young friends in a house party at the home of Mrs. Charles Goodloe, in Hanover county. Misses Berta McCue and Gwendolyn Barrett, two of their guests, spent yesterday in Richmond with friends before returning to their homes at Louisa.

Hurt—Thomas.

At noon on Thursday a wedding of much interest was celebrated in Bedford City, when Mrs. C. W. Thomas and William P. Hurt were married in the presence of the immediate relatives of the couple and a few intimate friends, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Thomas, on Longwood Avenue, Bedford City. Rev. John Gregory, of the Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony in a setting of beautiful flowers, which added charm to the handsome apartments.

The bride is the daughter of the late John Humphreys, of Lynchburg, and has numbers of friends and relatives throughout the State.

After the ceremony the wedding guests were entertained at a beautiful luncheon in the Thomas home, and later Mr. and Mrs. Hurt left for Bedford for a trip East. They will be away for about two weeks, and will reside in Bedford City on their return.

In Honor of Richmond Girl.

The most delightful event was given in the armory in Burlington, N. C., a few days ago by Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Gant, complimentary to the following young people, who are being entertained at a house party by Miss Corinna Gant: Misses Margaret and Bessie Erwin, of Durham; Ruth Bradley, of Abbeville, Ala.; Judith Kemp, of Richmond, and May Lindley, of Greensboro, and Lloyd Hunt and Lawrence Adams, of Durham. From 9:30 to 1 the merry party sped the hours to the lively music of an orchestra, the singing being gracefully led by Miss Jessamine Gant with Tom Beall, of Greensboro. The armory was tastefully decorated with banks of potted plants and cut flowers, the color scheme of pink and green being carried out. The punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. Joseph Bradley, of Banks, Williamson, of Gloucester. In the intermission the party repaired to the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Gant, across the street, and partook of the delectable of sweets, cake and fruit.

The following couples danced: Miss Bessie Erwin, of Durham, in coral-colored messaline, with Don Scott, of Durham; Miss Margaret Erwin, of Durham, in yellow silk, with Robert L. Holt; Miss Judith Kemp, of Richmond, in white embroidered tulle, with John Gant; Miss Nancy Lloyd, of Front Royal, Va., in white silk, with Charles Menefee, of Danville; Miss Ione Scott, of Graham, in yellow messaline, with Elmer Long, of Graham; Miss Blanche Scott, of Graham, in white lingerie, with Edwin Scott, of Graham; Miss Mamie Barker, of Graham, in white net, with Steve Moore; Miss Sarah Kernode, of Graham, in yellow messaline, with John Scott, of Graham; Miss Dora Williamson, of Saxapahaw, in white lingerie, with Doc Williamson, of Saxapahaw; Mr. and Mrs. James N. Williamson, Jr., of Abbeville, Ala., in white satin, with Mr. and Mrs. L. Banks Williamson, Jr., and Mrs. Lynn B. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holt. Stags: Messrs. Elliott Hanks, Kerr Craigie, of Salisbury; Abbott and Oren Lloyd, of Durham, and Paul Collins, of Hillsboro. Chaperons: Mrs. Paul Norcross, of Atlanta; Mrs. Victor Graves, of St. Joseph; Mrs. J. Q. Gant, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. L. C. Carter and Mrs. A. Bradley.

Goes to Yellowstone Park.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ingram, of Philadelphia, to join Mr. Culp's brother-in-law, C. N. Sheaffer, superintendent of passenger transportation for the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheaffer, together with Mrs. Culp, will leave New York tomorrow for the Yellowstone National Park, where they will spend a month.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Jennie Burwell, of this city, is visiting in Goshen, Va., where she is having a delightful time.

Mrs. M. A. Labastian, of 320 North Harrison Street, left last Monday for the mountains of Virginia, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Floyd Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Boulware have returned from their wedding tour and are stopping for the present at the Hotel Querrant.

Miss Alice Doyle, who has been quite ill with fever, is much improved.

Judge and Mrs. J. H. Ingram are spending the summer at Buck Hill, in Chesterfield county. Their daughter, Miss Elsie Ingram, of Winston-Salem, Miss Cobb, William and Duval Gwathmey, Robert McBair, Arthur Hiltch and Warren and Temple Robinson.

Misses Mattie Allen Gregory and Miss Sallie Penn Gregory are visiting at Courtlands, Hanover county, Va., the home of W. F. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Arrington are at Forest Hill.

Letters have been received from Rev. and Mrs. William Meade Clark, who are most enthusiastic over their trip abroad. They are now touring Ireland and enjoying the many beauties of the "Emerald Isle."